Mr. D. W. Crowley waited on the Council on behalf of the committee of management appointed at the irrigation meeting the previous week.

He stated the committee now had a man employed in cleaning the ditches.

They had gone over the various ditches and had made a careful estimate, and they placed the cost of running the irrigation system for the season at $600. The ditches had not been cleaned out for several years, but, when put in good order, they would be capable of carrying an ample supply of water. The people living in the suburbs, who paid their share of interest and sinking fund on municipal funds but derived little benefit from the water and light plants and other municipal undertakings, needed water to grow their crops, and he thought it would be only just that the Council should make on their behalf the expenditure asked for.

Ald. Copeland, as a member of the committee, explained that the total estimate of $600 was arrived at by

ATHLETIC TOURNAMENT

Largely Attended

The athletic tournament, under the auspices of the Kelowna Athletic Club, produced a large attendance in the Opera House on Thursday evening, and the various items on the programme were followed with keen appreciation. Smoking being freely permitted, the spectators sat at their ease and indulged in their favourite pipe or cigar.

The entertainment was opened with a song by Mr. H. Johnston, who had to respond to an enthusiastic encore with "I Want What I Want When I Want It," given with fine effect.

Dr. Huycke, who made a capable chairman, delivered a short address, expressing the thanks of the committee for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the entertainment, the proceeds of which would be devoted towards building a gymnasium in town.

He thanked the audience present at the last display for their gentlemanly behaviour, and trusted those present would maintain the standard set and that they would refrain from applause during the bouts.

The boxing was opened with three rounds between Messrs. Claud Newby and T. Abbott, with Mr. A. C.

Pettman as referee. Abbott clinched repeatedly and Newby had the best of it, if anything, but the boxing was rather ragged.

Mr. E. A. Woods was entered for a comic song, and replied with a step dance, given in excellent style, for which he won loud applause.

A six-round bout between light-weights, Messrs. Fisher, Woods Lake, and L. R. P. Paton, Vancouver Athletic Club, provided some fast work.

Mr. H. Johnston refereed.

Fisher led, but after a few exchanges the men clinched. Paton showed very good form and forced the pace, Fisher neatly dodging several good leads for the head. Honours even.

At the opening of the second round Fisher again took the aggressive, but Paton soon put him on the defensive and made him show his powers of foot work, ducking and dodging, at all of which he is very clever, but he seems to depend on these means of evading his antagonist's attack instead of using his guard and countering.

Paton had much the best of it in the third round. He seemed to get wise to Fisher's tactics and caught him with hooks and upper-cuts several times when executing what seemed to be a successful getaway.

Fisher got in a good counter to the jaw in the fourth, and after a lively exchange of punches he landed another, but Paton placed some effective body blows that might have worked mischief in actual fighting. Honours easy.

The men clinched in the fifth after a few exchanges, and after the breakaway Fisher landed a heavy counter, but Paton had the best of it generally and maintained his attack and the advantage in the sixth.

Fisher appearing to tire somewhat, although coming back now and again in lively fashion.

It was a pretty exhibition and the boxers were well applauded.

Mr. J. B. Whitehead gave a graceful exhibition of club swinging, which furnished an interesting variety to the programme.

A bout with foils between Messrs.
J. F. Burne and A. H. P. Errington followed, with Mr. F. Armstrong as referee. In the first engagement, both landed several touches, but Errington seemed to have the better of it. In the second, honours were fairly even, both getting home with thrusts.

In the third, Mr. Burne did some good work and poked his opponent several times with effective body thrusts, but the pair were well matched throughout.

Three rounds between Messrs. A.
C. Pettman and W. Miller, with H.
Johnston as referee, pleased the spectators immensely, and there were loud demands for an "encore," which ceased only when the chairman promised the pair would go another round or two later in the evening, but it was not found practicable for them to do so.

Miller was aggressive throughout, but his blows did not seem very effective. He fought with an apparently open guard that would seem to court disaster, but he generally managed to protect himself fairly well, from counter attack. Pettman showed strong defence and occasionally took the lead, but Miller was a good match for him most of the time.

There were several clinches in the second round, which was very lively, also in the third, which was very fast with a rapid-fire exchange of blows and counters, but all throughout the contestants preserved the best of humour.

CITY COUNCIL

estimating the cost of cleaning the ditches, repairing flumes and doing other necessary work, at $300 and allowing $300 more for the wages of a water bailiff for four months at $75 per month. He cordially endorsed Mr. Crowley's remarks, and recommended that the Council make a grant of $600.

Ald. Cox asked what any taxpayers interviewed by Ald. Copeland had said about the proposal to give a municipal grant towards the expenses of administering the irrigation service, and Ald. Copeland replied that they had expressed themselves as satisfied.

Ald. Dalgleish asked why the water users could not form a company and tax the people for water.

Mr. Crowley said it was impracticable. It had been tried before without success.

Ald. Jones said that his own property did not need irrigation water, but he thought justice should be done to the people on the outskirts of the town, who required water and received comparatively small benefit from the taxes they paid.

Ald. Jones said that, according to the request of the committee, apparently the City was to get no recompense for the grant by means of a rate or tax on the water users, and he did not think this was right, when the grant would come out of municipal funds.

Ald. Leckie was of the opinion that the question was a hard matter, dangerous to touch without stirring up strife. Should a grant of $600 be made, a precedent would be created which it would be almost impossible to avoid following in subsequent years. A section of the City would not benefit by the grant, as in that district the flumes were out of repair, and the people living there might object to allotment of city funds for a purpose in which they could not share.

Ald. Cox understood that the committee was to ask for a grant large enough only to meet a part of the cost of the irrigation service, not the whole, and that a tax would be levied on the water users to pay the balance.

Mr. Crowley thought that successive City Councils had been slack in not having had control of the irrigation system long ago, as it was in the best interests of the whole town, not a section of it only, to have a good supply of irrigation water to make everything grow. As to a precedent being created, if the City obtained control the precedent in regard to a grant would not matter.

The Mayor said that many people believed that nothing had been done to secure municipal control, but he had taken the matter up himself repeatedly and had interviewed Premier McBride and other members of the provincial government, as well as the Water Commissioners, and he had also obtained legal opinions from Mr. Billings, of Vernon, and other lawyers. He read one of the opinions which referred to certain clauses of the Municipal Act and stated that, under them, the City had power to buy the ditches and to carry water in them, making a charge for the service. Other municipalities, such as Coldstream, for instance, were having difficulty with the same question but seemed to be making headway with it. The municipalities had been working for the past two years to get power from the government to deal with old water records and to expropriate them, if necessary, but the government was chary about giving them such power.

Ald. Jones understood the Water Commissioners met in Kelowna in June, and it would be a good thing to appoint a deputation to meet them.

Continuing his remarks, the Mayor added that the government took the position that the City had, under existing acts, all the powers required. His own opinion was that the easiest and best system of handling the water would be for the City to get hold of the water records.

Ald. Leckie moved, seconded by Ald. Jones, That the City make a grant of $300 for the purpose of cleaning and fixing up the irrigation ditches, and that this amount be put at the disposal of the committee appointed at the public meeting held on 21st inst.

In support of his motion, Ald. Leckie said the grant was sufficient to put the ditches in order, according to the committee's estimate, and the people who used the water should pay the bailiff themselves.

Mr. Crowley expressed dissatisfaction with the motion, and said he was disinclined to act on the committee if it was the finding of the Council, as he would not undertake himself to collect any money from water users. Some would pay and some would not, just as in former years, and some would steal water from their neighbours.

Ald. Copeland suggested the names of Ald. Leckie and Ald. Jones as collectors of the bailiff's wages. (Laughter.)

Ald. Leckie said he was quite willing to help and if it could be arranged for the bailiff to report to him, he would undertake to stop anyone stealing water.

Mr. Crowley asked if some legal form could not be drawn up to which the signatures of all persons using water could be secured, and Ald. Leckie replied that the surest and simplest way would be to obtain notes and collect through the Bank, or in default sue.

The Mayor agreed with Mr. Crowley's contention that it would be in the best interests of the town to have a plentiful supply of irrigation water, having regard to the beneficial effect on its general appearance. It might be a good thing to levy a rate of one mill on the whole city for irrigation purposes.

The Mayor's suggestion did not meet with much favour, and the motion was then put and carried, Ald. Copeland not voting.

The Mayor enquired if the Council were in favour of taking over the irrigation system.

Ald. Leckie:—"Yes, and meet the cost by levying a tax on the land irrigated."

On motion of Ald. Leckie and Copeland, it was resolved, That this City take steps to acquire the irrigation rights within the city limits and to control distribution of the water.

Ald. Dalgleish moved, seconded by Ald. Copeland, That the Board of Works be instructed to have the telephone poles moved on Harvey Ave. The Mayor proceeded to put the motion, when Ald. Cox warmly protested against it being railroaded through without explanation, and he objected to vote for a motion about which he knew nothing.

Ald. Dalgleish explained that the work would cost about $275, for moving about a mile of the pole line, and Ald. Copeland added that the street had been graded too narrow in the first place, only about 18 feet wide, and by moving the poles and re-grading the roadway a good, wide street could be made.

Ald. Jones supported the motion on the ground of having a good road all the way from the government road on the eastern boundary of the City to Pendozi St., so as to afford an alternative route to Bernard Ave. and relieve it of part of the wear and tear.

The motion was passed. Mr. Crowley said he had another matter to bring before the Council; it was in reference to the Band, of whose committee he was a member. They had succeeded in getting a man as leader who was responsible for the high standard of excellence of the Vernon Band two years ago, and they had arranged temporarily with him for two months' services at $60 a month until it could be learned to what extent the Council would assist. He was informed that the Vernon bandmaster now got $125 per month and that the Vernon and Summerland Councils made grants to their respective Bands of $60 per month. The Band had rather bad luck with leaders in the past, and it was not their fault that they had not done better. A good band was very necessary to the town, and he thought the Council should give liberal help. The members of the Band were prepared to raise $10 per month amongst themselves if the Council would give $50 per month. Should the arrangement not prove successful, the City would not be called upon for more than a portion of the total sum involved by the monthly rate.

Ald. Leckie liked the idea, carried out last year, of paying so much per concert, but Mr. Crowley declared it was not a good plan to follow here because there was no trained organization ready to earn the grant in that manner, and last year the Band had not drawn as much money as they might, simply because they lacked the training.

With regard to what had been quoted as having been done by the Vernon and Summerland Councils in aid of their bands, Ald. Leckie did not see it was necessarily wise to follow the example of other towns in such matters.

Ald. Cox, as one of the Band Committee, made a strong plea for a liberal grant from the civic exchequer. He was sorry the Band had not made a success of their leaders in the past, but they had a man now who was A1. The majority of the ratpayers, he believed, were in favour of having a good band, as, to draw tourists, it was necessary to have good music, and it was a shame to see the fine band stand in the Park unoccupied. He heartily favoured a grant of $50 per month. The Summerland Band had won more applause at the New Westminster Fair last year than a crack American organization that was in attendance, and the advertising value to Summerland of having such an excellent band was very great. The idea of the proposed grant was that the leader would get practically all of his salary from the City funds, and when the men went out on an engagement to play they would get some remuneration for their time, which would be an inducement for them to turn out, instead of receiving nothing as heretofore.

Ald. Dalgleish believed the Band should be encouraged, as the boys could not reasonably be expected to turn out and play for nothing.

By general agreement, the matter was postponed for a week to permit of time to think it over.

On the Street Sprinkling By-law No. 89 coming up for its second reading, the Mayor asked what boundaries should be made to the sprinkling district.

Ald. Jones wanted all of Bernard Ave. and a considerable portion of Pendozi St. to be included.

The Mayor replied that if Ald. Jones' proposal was carried out there would be the same outcry as against the grant of municipal funds for irrigation purposes, that money from the general funds was being spent for a special purpose, as the special assessment in the more thinly settled portions of the sprinkling area would not meet the cost as in the business section. Last year, a rate of 3 cents per foot was struck, but too much money was raised, and the rate was reduced to 2 cents, which would be enough this year for the business quarter. The frontage tax was chargeable on the street frontage actually occupied by a store or other premises, the intent of the act being to levy on the property occupied by buildings and not on vacant portions of lots. Therefore, it would not be right to charge the sprinkling tax on the whole frontage of residential property, of which the houses usually occupied only a part.

Ald. Dalgleish drew attention to the benefit conferred upon the surface of the streets by watering. When dry, the loose surface cut up into holes through the wear and tear of traffic, but when wet, the surface would pack together and thus resist wear.

The By-law received its second and third readings.

The tax will be levied on all stores and premises situated in Blocks 12, 13, 14 and 17, Map 462, fronting on Bernard Ave.; on all premises situated on both sides of Bernard Ave., from Pendozi St. to Ethel St., and on both sides of Pendozi St., from Bernard Ave. to Glenwood Ave.

Council adjourned to Saturday, May 6th.

L. O. bench. His last visit was in 1906, and he was much struck with the manifest progress of the town and district in the intervening period. He left for England yesterday morning, but will probably visit Kelowna again on his return to China at the expiration of his leave.

The Band has been fortunate in securing as leader Mr. Kendrick, who brought to such a high pitch of excellence the Vernon Band two years ago and took them to fill an engagement at the New Westminster exhibition, where they won hearty appreciation of their musical skill. He was formerly assistant cornet soloist in Sousa's Band, and is a musician of great ability. Provided the City Council will render adequate assistance, the Band has now every chance to blossom into a crack organization, and it is to be hoped the Council will recognize the necessity of good music to the town by giving a more liberal grant than has been customary in the past. Streets and sidewalks always demand attention, but the finer side of life should not be neglected for the purely material, and civic funds can be spent to advantage in aiding the Band.

President Warren, of the Kettle Valley Railway, has assured a deputation of the Penticton Board of Trade that there will be no delay in construction of the road as soon as the final location is definitely settled. Great difficulty has been experienced in securing a good grade east and west of Penticton without incurring prohibitively expensive construction work, and it has been necessary to run fresh survey lines. President Warren hopes, however, that the difficulties will be surmounted and active construction commenced within a couple of months.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE

A handsome three-story brick block has been completed in Nanaimo for the Black Diamond Lodge of the local Oddfellows.

Prince Rupert proposes to specialise legislation against the one automobile now claiming that city as its home port.

A company has been formed to take over the Kootenay Jam Company's factory at Nelson, and will manufacture preserves, pickles, jams and other delicacies from Kootenay fruit.

It is announced that the Associated Portland Cement Manufacturers of London, England, with a capital of $40,000,000, have secured two sites for the manufacture of cement in British Columbia, one inland and one on tidewater, and that the company will commence constructive operations within a few weeks. The cost of the works, it is stated, will run over $1,000,000 and the plants will have a capacity of 7,000 barrels a day.

The Provincial Government has let a tract of 50,000 acres to Messrs. Green Bros. & Burden to survey for pre-emption purposes. This is adjacent to the block of 200,000 acres north of the Nechako River, and between the Salmon and the Stuart rivers, already surveyed. The surveying for bona-fide settlers of an immense tract of 500,000 acres is contemplated in the scheme of the government. This will mean 3,125 pre-emptions, or, reckoning on families of five individuals each, room for a farming population of almost 10,000 in the Fort George district.

A hydrographic survey party under the direction of Mr. J. C. Dufresne has commenced the seasonal work out of Fairview. The work to be undertaken consists in the mapping out and charting of the creeks and waterways in the irrigated zones of British Columbia, and is designed to furnish the government with data for determining the amount of water used by each settler and the available supply in the different districts. This season's work in the Similkameen will comprise the determining of these problems between Fairview and the International boundary. This part of the work will be linked up with that completed in the Okanagan last year when two parties were in the field. Provided with the material thus secured the provincial water commission will be able to decide with impartial fairness as to the water rights of all settlers.

Ashcroft potato growers are disposing of their next season's crop in advance at $15.50 per ton.

At Fort George carpenters receive $7.00 for a nine-hour day, helpers $5.00, and general labourers $4.50.

The Songhees Reserve in Victoria will be sold by public auction on June 15, 16 and 17. Railroad companies will have the same opportunities to purchase as the general public.

Three men have been killed and five others were more or less seriously injured by a snowslide which carried away the bunkhouse at the Junbo mine, Prince of Wales Island. James Flagg, supposed to have a brother living either here or in Vancouver, was one of the dead.

The requests from Vancouver and other centres on the Mainland for the establishment of a home for the indigent aged are still under consideration by the provincial government, having been for the time being referred by the executive to Hon. W. R. Ross, the minister of lands, who has been requested to secure a valuation on the 90-acre location suggested as a site for the new institution, near Burnaby Lake. Hon. Mr. Ross will probably report to an early meeting of the executive, when further action will be taken.

Within ninety days plans and improvements, which are now being prepared will be carried out at an expenditure of nearly $50,000 that will make Burnaby Lake a very fresh water Saratoga, and incidentally create one of the most popular districts in the vicinity of Vancouver. The new district, which underwent an almost magical transformation since the recent opening up of the B. C. Electric Railway Co.'s new line, promises to be in great demand as a popular suburban residential district, and to be the scene of marked activity. Among the notable improvements, which it is planned to carry out, there is the lowering of Burnaby Lake about six feet, thereby improving the drainage of a considerable section of the land and also reclaiming considerable land, which will be utilised for a wide shore-line, boulevard or esplanade. It is also planned to erect an island in that end of the lake, with the earth secured by dredging. Next year, or possibly late this summer, if sufficient progress is made in the undertaking, the first of what is expected to be made a series of annual regattas is to be held there, with the intention of making Burnaby Lake the scene of many important aquatic events.

A handsome new building is to be erected in Vancouver as the permanent home of the Arts and Crafts Association.

Headed by a number of Vancouver business men, a company will undertake this summer the construction of a brewery at Prince Rupert, and on the completion of arrangements now being made with the G. T. P. for a suitable site, work will be started. The licence has been secured, and the plant, at the start, will cost about $30,000.

With a record of nearly 4,000 cougar, wolves and coyotes killed in the province during the past year, it does not look as if the wild animals are being thinned out very rapidly in spite of the efforts of the hunters. These are the figures given by the provincial game warden as an estimate of the number of these animals killed, but this does not include those killed by Indians and others who have given no record of the bag. Of this number over 800 were cougar, the big cat seeming to thrive in spite of the advance of civilization. About 2,000 were timber wolves and the rest were coyotes. On Vancouver Island the wolves and cougars are becoming so numerous that they are thinning out the game rapidly. Steps are now being taken to reduce these pests and a great number will be shot or trapped by the government game wardens during the year. It is estimated that over 200 cougar have been killed on the island during the past year.

The preliminary survey work necessary to determine the route of the highway from Hope is now progressing under the supervision of Messrs. Cleveland and Cameron, engineers of Vancouver. It is stated that considerable time will necessarily elapse before the general route is located and a great deal of data will have to be collected concerning the best methods to follow with a view to establishing the new road. Once the general route is decided upon, the engineers declare that the greatest difficulty will be solved. The survey takes in the northern end of the Hope range and by this it will be observed that the task confronting the engineers is a rather formidable one. They, however, hope to present a report within the next couple of months. The proposed road will be from eighty-five to ninety-five miles long and will connect with the main road out of Princeton going east and also with the Crow's Nest road, providing communication with Rossland.

It is possible that the Vancouver "Made-in-Canada" Fair Building will be erected in one day by a force of 600 carpenters. The Carpenters' Union are enthusiastic over the idea. The date will probably be May 24.

A Timely Value Event That Fills Your Wants When You Want

It has been customary in the drygoods business to hold whitewear sales in January. There are very few reasons we have heard that justify such an arrangement, but for all that it has been a tradition of the trade since the oldest drygoods man can recall. But times change and we with them. We have noted a growing tendency among our customers to fill each want as it occurs, consequently the interest in January Whitewear Sales has been a diminishing quantity for some time. So here is the reason for our holding a May Whitewear Sale—just at the time when your requirements in this direction are most insistent. All the choice you could ask for—all the big values permissible—all the enthusiasm that was ever generated in past Whitewear Sales is shown again in this. It is an opportunity when every woman can select with the certain knowledge that she buys what she needs—there is no speculation and no uncertainty about styles changing. The values announced are the greatest we ever offered in an event of this kind. Choose where you will and at what price you will you're assured of unmatchable value.

Sale starts Monday at store opening time and will be continued throughout the week
